Gwyn Villa, Capel Iwan Newcastle Emlyn, SA38 9ND

Gwyn Villa has massive potential to extend and improve (subject to any consents required) to provide what would then be a comfortable family home set in just under half an acre of gardens with beautiful far reaching views over open farmland and beyond. Although currently needing updating and modernisation, once done the new owner would have a superbly positioned home with loads of outside space with a garage and detached outbuilding with off street parking. In the house there is a kitchen, sitting room, lounge with potential to subdivide to provide a 2nd downstairs bedroom, on the first floor there is one bedroom and a bathroom. The writer also thinks that there is potential for a building plot to the right hand side of the property as the whole site is just under half an acre, split in two that would give quarter of an acre for each property (subject to consents of course) Quite rare these nowadays !
